Q1. What services, products, or resources would you like to see made available for summer reading program planning that (to the best of your knowledge) are NOT currently available?

1	Can not think of any!	Dec 18, 2013 3:37 PM
2	Columbus Clippers discount tickets, Columbus Zoo discount tickets	Dec 5, 2013 11:35 AM
3	More coupons available for children.	Dec 2, 2013 12:56 PM
4	It would be cool if we could personalize posters/fliers (mini posters) and large signs with our library's name/website etc.	Dec 2, 2013 12:53 PM
5	Our community is a small town of 5,700 people and the businesses are struggling to stay open. We have a high rate of foreclosures, a high rate of drug activity, and 60+% of local kids (the rate varies during the school year) are receiving free or reduced lunches. Businesses just don't have the resources to contribute coupons. I had the Assistant Superintendent of Schools volunteer to help me solicit donations/coupons this past summer, and she came up with what I usually come up with -- not much. Coupons, discounts, and grant opportunities for funding are always really appreciated. Fast food coupons, free books, etc. I would love to see more photos of how libraries decorate/decorated for SRP -- photos of bulletin boards, displays, etc. And, images of library-created reading logs/reading games. Let's show off that creativity! Patterns and really cheap program ideas are also great. Thanks so much!	Nov 24, 2013 3:30 PM
6	Computer software that collects data	Nov 22, 2013 4:11 PM
7	None.	Nov 21, 2013 5:46 PM
8	Music CD would be nice.	Sep 25, 2013 11:33 AM
9	Just coupons for activities closer to our libraries.	Sep 24, 2013 10:46 AM
10	none	Sep 12, 2013 3:39 PM
11	Multiple themes with some applicable to families spanning age groups.	Sep 12, 2013 12:57 PM
12	Incentives from Highsmith are disappointing. Promotional adds on TV/Radio for SRP in general. Run the 30 second add state-wide on multiple local stations.	Sep 11, 2013 12:24 PM
13	More themes and ideas geared toward tots and preschoolers.	Sep 10, 2013 3:51 PM
14	Looking forward to the early bird workshop this fall!	Sep 10, 2013 1:52 PM
15	I would like to have the summer reading workshops earlier in the year. I have to do my planning much further in advance. I also would like to go back to the format of having different librarians present programs - not just one person speaking all day.	Sep 9, 2013 1:56 PM
16	Freebies always great.	Sep 9, 2013 10:22 AM
17	None	Sep 6, 2013 11:21 AM
18	None. I love the CSLP manual and artwork!	Sep 5, 2013 12:38 PM
19	More music/better, easier readers' theater scripts. SRP children are younger	Sep 4, 2013 10:11 AM than ever before and easier more intertaining materials are needed.

20	N/A	Sep 3, 2013 12:39 PM
21	Kits for summer reading.	Aug 30, 2013 1:48 PM
22	Not many of the performers on the state website do science shows. I would love to know about anyone who does an interesting science show and is willing to travel this next year, not magicians and storytellers who adapt their show to be science-oriented, but those who generally do science shows all the time.	Aug 30, 2013 9:44 AM
23	Better ways to present programs at schools to advertise the SRP	Aug 29, 2013 5:50 PM
24	We get a good list of performers every year. It might be nice to have a list of people who will do inexpensive programs to have in between the regular ones. We begin the summer and end the summer with nice programs for all ages.	Aug 27, 2013 8:04 PM
25	Teen - Any chance we could have some type of food coupon or incentive? My teens would definitely prefer pizza or burritos over camping or the fair. Adult - More adult prizes.	Aug 27, 2013 5:15 PM
26	Tips on creating activities on a tight budget.	Aug 27, 2013 2:50 PM
27	Can't think of anything at this time.	Aug 27, 2013 1:18 PM
28	Would be nice to have SRP workshops closer to the Cleveland area	Aug 27, 2013 12:16 PM
29	We would love to see Upstart/Highsmith bring back the customized t-shirts that have your library name on the back.... free advertising for our libraries!	Aug 27, 2013 11:54 AM
30	Allow libraries to personalize t-shirts with library's name.	Aug 26, 2013 7:30 PM
31	Lists of local presenters, especially cheap or free like parks people, art organizations, conservationists, graduate students, etc.	Aug 26, 2013 11:54 AM
32	For adults, graphics that are appropriate. Not all adults are into "zombie/apocalypse" themes. One thing that would be interesting and helpful is a ready made postcard/or image that could be sent in the mail to past patrons, or sent through email to past patrons that have participated. If we could purchase these from the catalog and put our own labels on them to ship.	Aug 23, 2013 3:03 PM
33	Cleveland Indians discounts (we are in NW Ohio)	Aug 20, 2013 4:05 PM
34	Lists of performers that pertain to the theme in the different states	Aug 18, 2013 12:56 PM
35	Nothing comes to mind.	Aug 16, 2013 1:11 PM
36	An option for TWEEN programming (artwork, shirts, prizes, etc.) This is a group that otherwise is caught between programs that are too young or too old...our numbers of 9-12 yr olds sky-rocketed once we started programming specifically to them, instead of combining them into the other groups.	Aug 15, 2013 5:12 PM
37	Themed products for adults.	Aug 15, 2013 10:46 AM

Q1. What services, products, or resources would you like to see made available for summer reading program planning that (to the best of your knowledge) are NOT currently available?

38	Buy a statewide subscription to the Evanced Summer Reader digital program. Several other state libraries offer this service and I think it would be of great benefit to Ohio libraries!!!	Aug 14, 2013 11:55 AM
39	Any additional deals the State Library could broker with companies in the same way as the fair and state parks coupons would be great.	Aug 13, 2013 2:58 PM
40	More examples of how programs are organized and ran.	Aug 12, 2013 1:50 PM
41	Resource list for guest speakers and programs	Aug 9, 2013 10:43 AM
42	Would like to see the artwork made available with a transparent background.	Aug 9, 2013 9:49 AM
43	It would be nice if the handouts were not read only and we could change them to fit our needs.	Aug 8, 2013 8:46 AM
44	I can not think of anything at this time	Aug 6, 2013 5:41 PM
45	Professional baseball promotions(Toledo Mudhens, Dayton Dragons, and Columbus Clippers) and Ohio Zoos(Toledo, Columbus, Cleveland, Cinccinati) promotions added.	Aug 6, 2013 3:10 PM
46	More color clip art	Aug 6, 2013 12:00 PM
47	It could be fun to have some ready made programming signs created with the themed artwork available that we could edit with specific information.	Aug 5, 2013 6:07 PM
48	Maybe a list of people who could do a SCIENCE based program for summer reading!	Aug 5, 2013 2:40 PM
49	Resources for planning an exciting finale for the program.	Aug 5, 2013 2:30 PM
50	more state-wide discounts, particularly for teens and adults.	Aug 2, 2013 3:59 PM
51	Layered PSD files for the artwork and images. There are so many different dimension needs for the artwork in digital formats (website, Facebook cover photo, Twitter cover photo, Google Plus cover photo, Evanced banner, etc.) that a layered file that can be easily manipulated would be wonderful.	Aug 1, 2013 5:04 PM
52	I believe what we were given between the guidebook and the workshop was plenty to allow us to conduct a summer reading program. Very thorough...	Aug 1, 2013 2:02 PM
53	I believe that the workshop, along with the handbook that was given to all of us, was more than enough to help us through summer reading. Both were very thorough, and they allowed us at Western to plan a very good summer reading program!	Aug 1, 2013 1:00 PM
54	It would be nice to have a more generic "summer" theme alternative available - especially with matching posters & products to purchase. Maybe an alternative could be offered every 2-5 years?	Jul 29, 2013 5:56 PM
55	I'm hoping that you have a fun item that is cheap enough for us to give out as children sign up. As you can see it has to be cheap enough for at least 400.	Jul 29, 2013 1:53 PM

Q1. What services, products, or resources would you like to see made available for summer reading program planning that (to the best of your knowledge) are NOT currently available?

56	An online resource for our kids would be great to keep track of the books they read. One that they can see and one that sends us a report as well. We like to know what they read and what they like. We keep track of that manually (as well as we can in SR chaos) but something virtual to help them set personal goals would be great.	Jul 23, 2013 2:54 PM
57	I would love to see one theme for all the ages, I know it generally is, but maybe the same slogan for promotional reasons.	Jul 23, 2013 2:24 PM
58	very happy with the resources	Jul 23, 2013 2:23 PM
59	I would like more information on performers or anyone with a program related to the them. In our rural area, it is difficult to find people who are willing to come here at a price we can afford.	Jul 23, 2013 12:50 PM
60	Like to see more ideas for adults	Jul 23, 2013 11:08 AM
61	many of our patrons have asked for local fair coupons rather than the state fair.	Jul 22, 2013 2:36 PM
62	Would love to see some sort of discount from Columbus Zoo. Also, any big restaurants like Bob Evans should be offering coupons or discounts (esp. since it is an Ohio company).	Jul 19, 2013 2:31 PM
63	Something from Toledo Mud Hens.	Jul 12, 2013 1:42 PM
