

Forever Free: Abraham Lincoln's Journey to Emancipation

March 22, 2011 ~ Presenter

Philip W. Stichter

pstichter@columbus.rr.com

Brief Biographical Information

1. Graduate of Northwestern University, History Major
2. Graduate of Harvard Law School
3. Officer in the U.S. Navy
4. Practiced law at Vorys, Sater, Seymour & Pease
5. Former Assistant Director of Insurance for the State of Ohio
6. Married, have 3 sons and daughters-in-law and 6 grandchildren

Research on Abraham Lincoln at:

Chicago Historical Society, Newberry Library, Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library, Allen County Public Library (Ft. Wayne), Smiley Library at the Lincoln Memorial Shrine (Redlands, CA), Library of Congress, New York Historical Society, New York Public Library, State Library of Ohio, Cincinnati Historical Society, Hayes Presidential Library, Western Reserve Historical Society, Warren County Historical Society, Columbus Public Library, and the Ohio Historical Society

Ongoing Research Projects on Abraham Lincoln:

1. 1860 publications of the numerous editions of the Lincoln-Douglas Debates by Follett, Foster and Company of Columbus, Ohio
2. 1860 campaign biographies published by Follett, Foster and Company
3. Ohioans active in the political life and presidential years of Abraham Lincoln
4. Images of the Lincoln funeral in Columbus, Ohio
5. Visits of Lincoln to Cincinnati, Dayton, Columbus, and Cleveland, Ohio
6. Abraham Lincoln and his connection with General John Basil Turchin (the only Civil War general from Russia)

Presentations on Abraham Lincoln and His Ohio Connections:

Columbus Historical Society
Franklin County Bicentennial Celebration

Relevant Memberships:

1. Abraham Lincoln Association
2. Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum
3. The Lincoln Forum
4. The Lincoln Fellowship of Wisconsin
5. National Trust for Historic Preservation
6. Worthington Historical Society
7. Columbus Historical Society
8. Ohio Historical Society (life member)